The Beacon
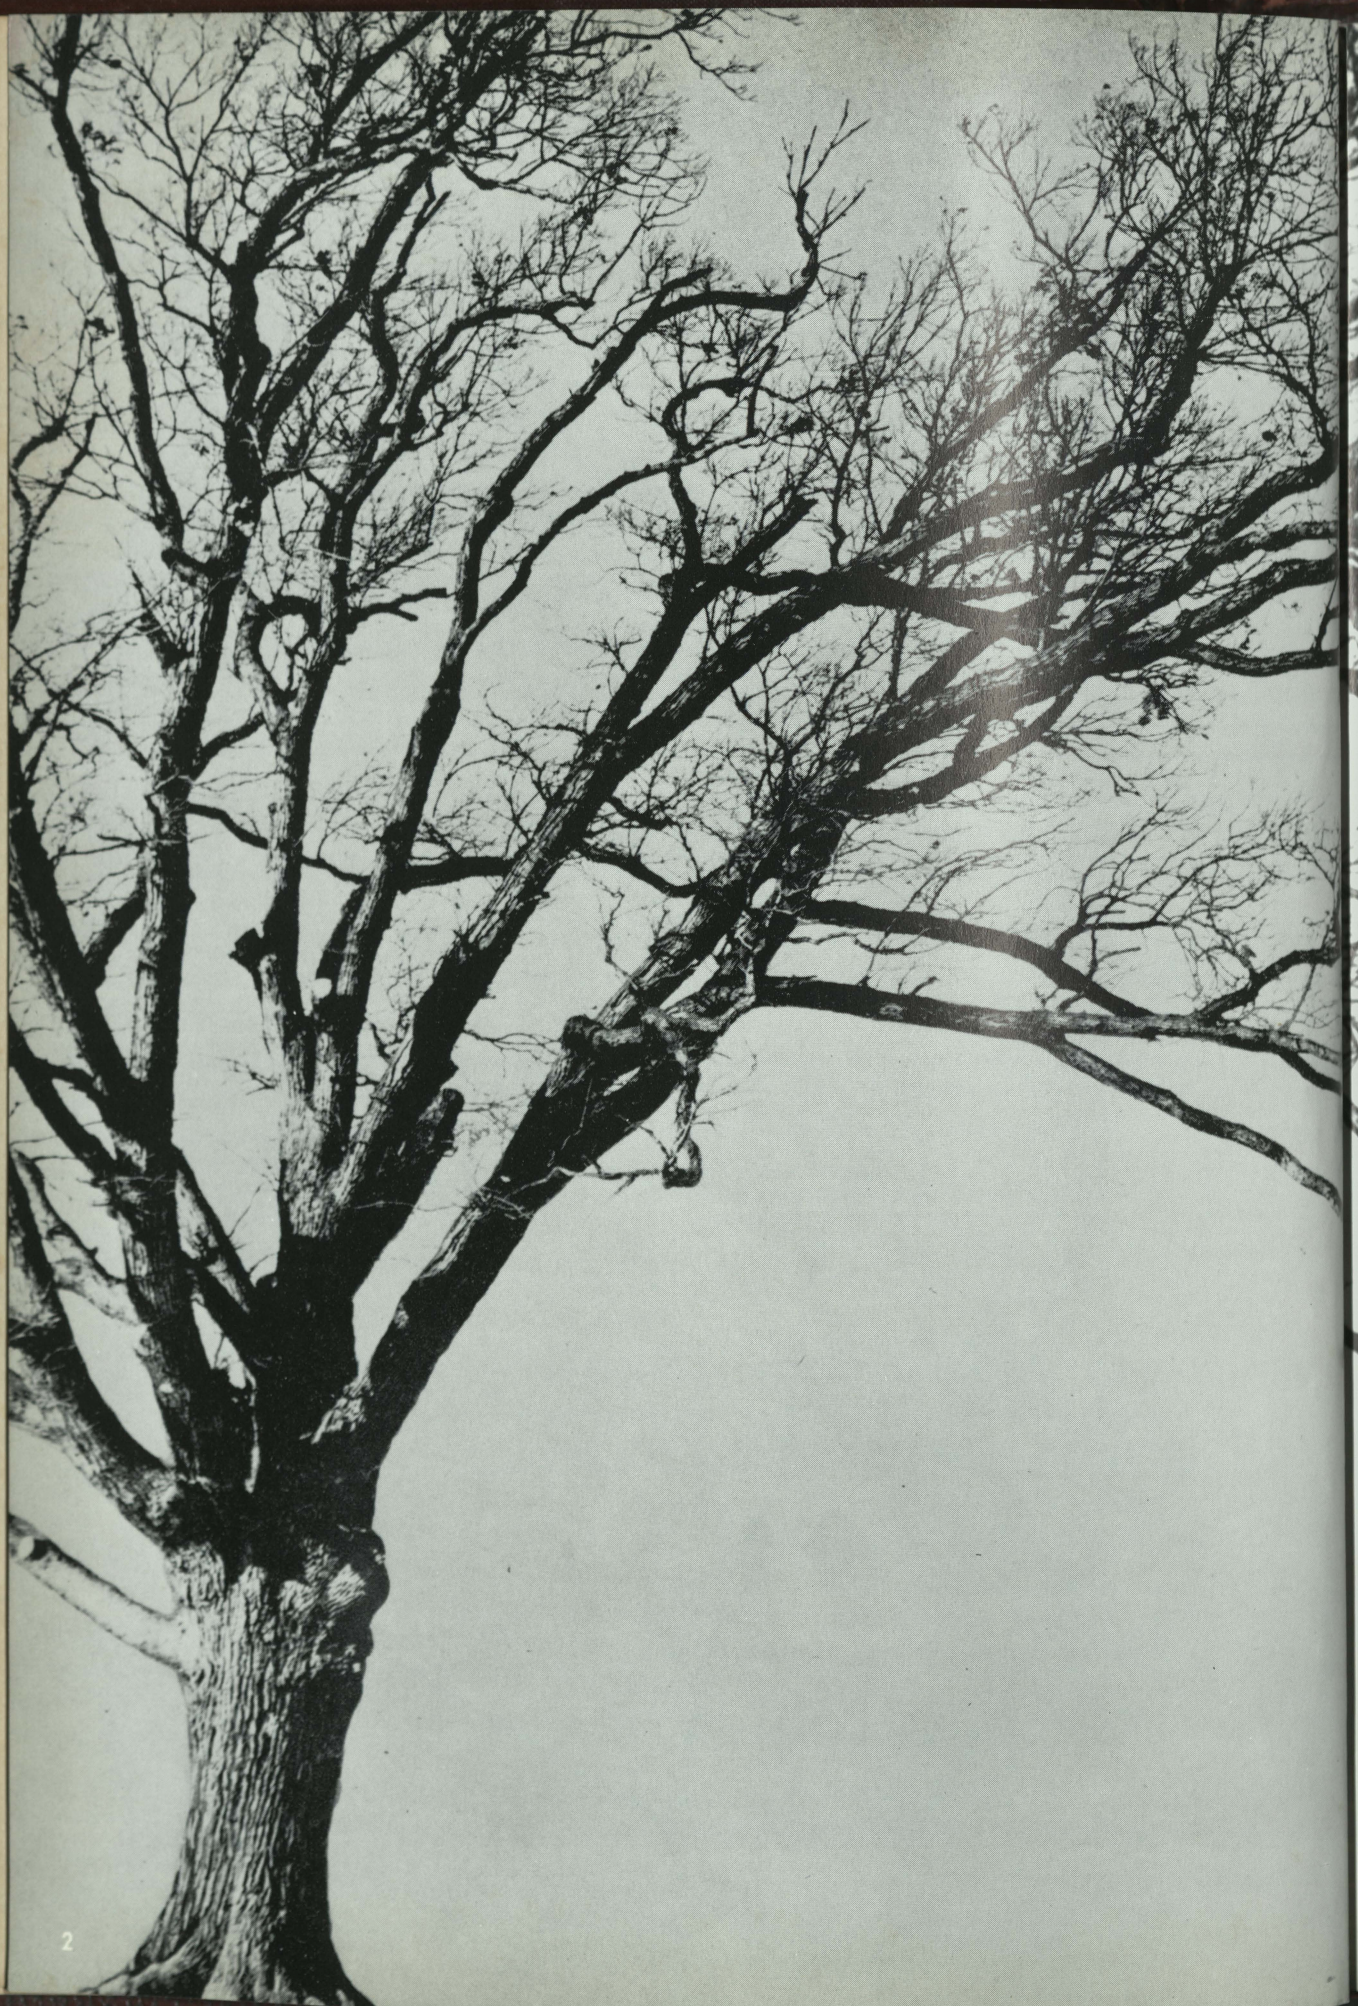
"1959"



Foreword

We, the Beacon Staff of 1959, have endeavored to make a record of our experiences at Salisbury High School. This yearbook will serve as a reminder of a pleasant task and a job well done. As you look through this book, it is the desire of the Beacon Staff that you will share in some of the many experiences at Salisbury High School during the year 1958-59. It is also our desire that, with the Senior Class of 1959, you will look "backward with pride and forward with hope."

THE BEACON STAFF

In Memoriam

Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all.
A bitter grief, a shock severe
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you.
And speak of how you died,
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed her loving eyes
And whispered "peace be thine"
Her weary nights are past;
Her ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Our lips cannot tell how we miss her,
Our heart cannot tell what to say;
God alone knows how we miss her
In a class that is lonesome today.

The quiet ships lying in the river have no suggestion of bluster about them - no intimation of aggression. They are commanded by men, thoughtful of the duty of citizens as well as the duty of officers - men acquainted with the traditions of the great service to which they belong. And so, this sight in the river touches merely as a symbol that quickens the pulse of every man who realizes these things.

History

As the class of '59 looks back, they wish to share the pleasant memories of their years at Salisbury High.

In March, 1954 a number of our classmates became the first seventh graders to be instructed in our new, modern building as freshmen. We stood on the threshold of a new and exciting career.

The year of 1953-54 was a year of making acquaintances and impressions. Annette Jones won recognition when she represented the Salisbury chapter of N. H. A. in Baltimore.

At the opening of the school year 1954-55, a number of eighth graders from all parts of Wicomico County swelled the enrollment of the class. With excitement, characteristic of newcomers and their classmates, the class continued the period of making acquaintances and impressions. This was a year of eager accomplishment. Annette Jones and Barbara Quinton represented the class on a trip to Washington with the Biology department.

The following year the class settled down to the role of accomplished freshmen. After being divided into sections and assigned courses, the class began to feel like a real high school class.

The sophomore year of 1956-57 brought recognition to the entire class. Wilmore Davis was hailed S.H.S. high-jump champion. Carroll Coulbourne, Allen Conway, and others distinguished themselves in the N.F.A. Recognition was given to Gloria Terry and Vaughn Anderson for their presentation of "Joan of Arc" which won first place in the Battle of Words. After saving a young boy's life, Vaughn Anderson was hailed a hero. Lionel Brown and Margaret Towns won a Class Poem contest.

Dignification seemed to settle upon the class during its junior year. It, too, was filled with activities. Wanda Long participated in the Maryland All-State Chorus. Maebelle Kelsaw and James Jester excelled in the Battle of Words. Mae Lemon became Miss Sweetheart. William Johnson, Gardner Peters, John Elzey, Albert Hayman, Tommy Dashiells, Vaughn Anderson and Raymond Jones were largely responsible for the success of our first tackle football team.

The senior year began very glamorously. One of the first activities was the Miss Salisbury High contest. Marie Elsey was crowned Miss Salisbury High. Annette Jones, Lionel Brown, Sidney Hull, and John Elzey participated in the Maryland All-State Chorus. John Lynn became editor of the "Informer." Maebelle Kelsaw, Lester Harmon, Barbara Quinton and Annette Waters took part in the "I Speak for Democracy" contest. Barbara Quinton became editor of the Yearbook.

The final year of work saw each senior busily engaged in the planning of the many senior activities. The class of '59 climaxed its many years of work with the senior activities: Class Night, Mom and Dad Night, The Baccalaureate Sermon, and Commencement.

Yes, the class of '59 looks backward with pride and forward with hope.

CLASS MOTTO: Look Backward with Pride and Forward with Hope.

CLASS POEM

Just as the class before us
And the ones before them too,
So we must find our places
In this world of all things new.

No longer will we be sheltered
From the problems of the land,
Our teachers no longer will lead us
Now we must try our hand.

We realize the tasks before us
Will often be difficult to do,
It's then we'll use the lessons
We learned so well from you.

Although, dear school, we leave you
With sad and heavy hearts,
We'll raise our heads to heaven
And go forth to take our parts.

So forward we will look with hope
And backward look with pride,
Knowing that dear old Salisbury High
In our hearts forever will abide.
